

I am solidly against further consolidation in the broadcasting industry and against cross-ownership relaxation. This would benefit no one except large corporations. Competition among half a dozen megaliths is not competition, it's oligarchy. Don't crowd out the little guys! The public airwaves can allow competition by the little guys only if they remain public. Don't do this, please!